ELECTION TICKETS.

We expected as there were two Democratic papers published here, that there would be a mutual and satisfactory arrangement entered into in regard to printing the tickets. But such was not the case. The Sentinel announces that it will print four thousand tickets, which will be as many as is required. That being the case we do not propose to print any more, as it would be an unnecessary tax upon the candidates. We make this announcement in answer to numerous inquiries as to whether we intend to print any tickets or not.

A Washington special states that David Davis is very sensitive to the criticism upon his action in accepting the Presidency pro tem at the hands of the Republicans. He wishes it understood that no one had said a word about it to him before his nomination by the Republican caucus, and that the charges that his nomination was the result of a "dicker," is unfounded.

A great excursion to New Orleans will come off Thursday, November 10th, 1881, starting from Cairo. The excursion will be under the direction of Mr. W. L. Collins, of Milan, Tennessee, who is general manager, and on application will give all information desired. The tickets issued will be good for the round trip to return on all regular trains until the 20th of the same month. The fare from the Junction, Michigan City, Holly Springs, Waterford and Abbeville, will be $7.50, and from Oxford and all stations down to Terrance it will be 6.50. Children under 12 years half price, and under four free. There will be no charge for extra baggage, and it will be checked to New Orleans if desired. Mr. Collins has experience in the business and guarantees first class accommodations in all respects.

Dyspeptic symptoms, such as retasting of the food, belching, heat in the stomach, heartburn, etc., promptly cured by Brown's Iron Bitters.

This Will Pay You.

We consult the best good of our readers in recommending them to now secure the valuable and important information and most interesting reading matter including a thousand or more of pleasing and instructive engravings and sketches that can be obtained at a trifling expense in the American Agriculturist. This is not merely a farm and garden journal, but is very useful to every housekeeper and to every household in village or country. It has an entertaining and useful department for the little ones. It is a journal that pays to take and read. Try it, and, our word for it, you will not be disappointed. Its constant, persistent exposures of humbugs and swindling schemes are worth far more than the cost of the paper. The 41st annual volume begins January 1, but those subscribing now for 1882 get the rest of this year free. Terms: 1.50 a year; four copies $5. (English or German edition;) single copy, 15c.

N. B.—Those desiring can get an extra or double specimen number post-free for 10 cts., by addressing the publishers, ORANGE JUDD CO., 751 Broadway, New York.

Mr. W. F. Adams, of Westboro, Mass., writes: "For years I suffered the horrors of dyspepsia and indigestion. They seemed to weaken every organ of life, and completely shattered my nervous system. At night when I lay down I felt I could not live until morning. Heartburn pained me most terribly. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters; it suited my case precisely, and now my stomach digests any kind of food, and my sallow complexion and other symptoms of ill health are all gone, and at night I enjoy most refreshing, dreamless slumbers."

The returns from the Ohio election are all in. From these it appears that the total vote cast was 627,002, of which, Foster, Republican, received 312,785; Bookwalter, Democrat, 288,426; Lincoln, Prohibitionist, 16,597, and Seitz, Greenbacker, 6380. Foster's majority over Bookwalter is 24,309, and over all, 1392.—Appeal.

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE OF HOW TO GAIN HEALTH.

Harriburg, Pa., March 30, 1881.
Nothing is more charming and attractive than a thoroughly healthy, perfectly formed woman; a bright-eyed, rosy, laughing, joyous happy-faced girl, one who finds keen pleasure in merely living. An invalid wife or mother is a constant object of sympathy in an otherwise contented household. Happy the home whose women folk enjoy perfect health. In my practice I have always recommended sickly women to use Brown's Iron Bitters. In case of irregularities, dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, nausea, sour stomach, nervousness and exhaustive debility, I find it exceeds all other remedies as a true medicinal tonic. It never fails to gently soothe, refresh and strengthen the general system, and especially those parts made weak by continued distress; and what satisfies me most is, that the cures, although in some instances gradual, are always permanent.—M. D.

Coup's Circus in a Row.

Atlanta, Ga., October 26.—After the performance of Coup's circus at Cartersville a difficulty occurred between the circus men, deputy marshals and others. A negro was shot dead. Others on both sides were badly beaten and bruised. Two circus men were shot. Whiskey was at the bottom of it. A lion and bear escaped from the cages during the fight. The bear was killed, but the lion is still at large. There is considerable excitement.

Let there be a grand rally of the Democracy throughout the State from now until the election. Every nook and corner should be aroused and the people stirred up to the duty of going to the polls. Every man should give one day to his country and vote to sustain a quiet reliable government. A change now would be hazardous to interests of the State.—Corinth Herald

ON THE ONLY GROUND IN THE PLACE LARGE ENOUGH FOR

W. C. COUP'S Great Elephant AND WILD BEAST SHOW!

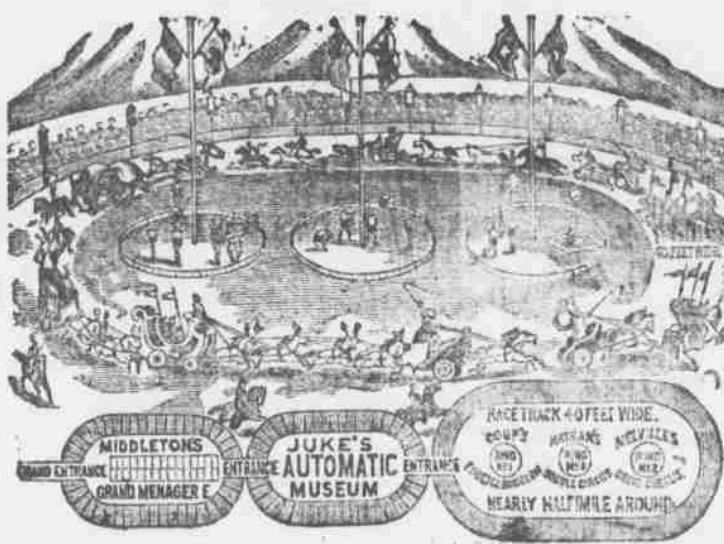

COMBINED WITH A

Museum, Menagerie, Hippodrome

AND

THE ONLY 4-RING CIRCUS IN THE WORLD!

ON ITS SECOND TRIUMPHANT ANNUAL TOUR TO THE LEADING CITIES OF THE SOUTH.

$100,000 Freely Forfeited if His New United Monster Show!

Is not fully three times larger than ever, and more than twice as large as any show that ever pitched tents south of Mason and Dixon's Line! Tents large enough to completely swallow up half a dozen ordinary shows, and positively the only really great and magnificent show that ever appeared in the South, using in advance two Palace Advertising Cars, and requiring three immense trains of cars to transport the show, at a daily expense of nearly $4,500.

Besides the great herd of Elephants, there are nearly 2,000 animals, birds, reptiles, trained horses &c., with nearly 200 first-class artists of all nationalities, in the four Circus and Hippodrome Companies, composed of the most brilliant male and female talent ever known in the Equestrian and Hippodromic world—either Europe or America—among which is the $20,000 handsomest woman in the United States.

So confident is Mr. Coup in the merit and magnitude of his present new and wonderful great organization, that he will willingly present each and every visitor with a ten dollar greenback if they can't truthfully say that COUP'S IS THE BEST THEY EVER SAW.

The nine kinds of music used in the GRANDEST STREET PAGEANT EVER KNOWN! Are fully equal to the combined melodies of Twelve Hundred Skillful Musicians. Such a startling array of features as is presented in the FOUR CIRCUS AND HIPPODROME KINGS was never before known in connection with any exhibition North or South, East or West, either in Europe or America.

TWO EXCURSIONS DAILY--AFTERNOON AND EVENING.

Cheap excursion trains will run on all railroads on the day of exhibition, for the accommodation of the multitude.

For the ADVERTISER.

The Departed Babes.

Far back in my childhood, I remember the day, When a sad trial like this To our cottage found its way. It was the death of a little sister, With bright eyes and light hair, With a delicate form, And a face very fair.

Eleven years have passed by; The next cloud that appeared, Swept away a little brother, Whose voice we no longer heard. He was a noble year-old boy, With a piercing blue eye; Though God hath sent his angel To bear his soul to the sky.

The first that died was Dora; In the church yard she was laid; The next that went was Oscar, And by her, him a grave we made. Their beautiful, bright spirits Have left this rough world wide, Though the bodies of Dora and Oscar Are in the church yard side by side.

Mr. Manning is winning golden opinions ever the whole State. His speeches in the canvass are not to be excelled by anybody, and they are having thrilling effect. We hope the executive committee will allow his remaining time to his own district. South Mississippi is already well ablaze for Lowry. If north Mississippi will do its share, Lowry will be elected governor by 50,000 majority.—Holly Springs South.

Adam Mitchell (col.) met with a severe accident, last week by having his hand either cut off or badly crushed by the train.

The above is the title of a series of sketches of the shady side of life and character in the Great Metropolis, now being fully illustrated from authentic sketches in the
